

Welcome

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the Acadia University website. Acadia delivers a superior academic and social student experience, and is widely recognized as one of the best undergraduate universities. From academic societies to intramural and varsity sports to theatre to world-class research, and lots in-between, there is something for everyone.

As Provost and Vice-President Academic, I am the chief academic officer and senior vice-president of the university and provide strategic direction and leadership for delivery of the academic mission.

I look forward to seeing you around campus.

Dr. Dale Keefe
Provost and Vice-President
