2020 Acadia Alumni Isaac Chipman Excellence in Alumni Service Award

The purpose of the award is to express pride and appreciation for outstanding alumni in their advancement of Acadia and its alumni.

The Acadia Alumni Isaac Chipman Award for Excellence in Alumni Service recognizes an alumnus or alumnae of Acadia University who has had a significant positive impact on Acadia and its alumni. The award focuses on a recipient who has provided consistent support in the form of time, effort and resources to the services and promotion of the advancement of the University and its alumni.

Consideration in the selection process is given to the following criteria:

- Breadth of Involvement - The range, diversity and magnitude of the candidate's involvement in, contributions towards, and efforts in support of the advancement of the University and its alumni.
- Depth of Involvement - The value and impact of the candidate's involvement in, contributions towards, and efforts in support of the advancement of the University and its alumni.
- Duration of Involvement –The period of time or years of sustained contributions towards and efforts in support of the advancement of the University and its alumni.

Nominations must be submitted by May 31 for consideration for the 2020 Award which will be awarded at Homecoming.
