

Call for Nominations 2020

Distinguished Alumni Award

The Acadia University Distinguished Alumni Award recognizes the truly outstanding achievements of a graduate of Acadia University whose endeavours have distinguished them in their chosen profession or community.

Consideration in the selection process is given to the following criteria:

- Breadth of Involvement - The range, diversity and magnitude of the nominee's involvement in, contributions toward, and efforts in support of professional research, civic duty, business, athletics, the arts, the community or other areas worthy of recognition.
- Depth of Involvement - The value and impact of the nominee's involvement in, contributions toward, and efforts in support of business, athletics, professional research, civic duty, the arts, their community or other areas worthy of recognition.
- Duration of Involvement - The years of sustained contributions toward their areas of recognition.

Nominations must be submitted by October 31, 2019 for consideration for the 2020 Award.

The award will be presented to the recipient(s) at the AAAU Annual Gala Dinner in Halifax, N.S.
