

Acadia University Research Support Fund (RSF) – Performance Objectives 2022-2023

The following table outlines the current Acadia University Research Support Fund performance objectives and indicators that will be tracked in accordance with the RSF requirements.

Eligible Category	Institutional Performance Objective	Indicator	Output	Outcomes Reported at Year End
1. Management & Administration	To continue to offer support for grant writing (GW) To improve internal grants/awards administrative processes	Participation in GW sessions; grant writing support provided Use of and building further capacity in (TD) contract management system	Provide grant writing workshops for Tri-Council programs and general grant writing strategies Maintain reporting using (TD) system. Regular meetings in-house, with Financial Services, and, as needed, with Tech Services to continue to improve the efficiency of TD System, and associated reporting

2. Research Resources	To maintain library resources for researchers	Number of downloads of electronic journals	Number of downloads of electronic journals in 2022-2023
3. Research Facilities	To operate & maintain university research facilities and research stations	Numbers of person days of research and/or numbers of researchers utilizing facilities and/or number of related publications	Numbers of person days of research and/or numbers of researchers utilizing facilities and or number of related publications in 2022-23
4. Intellectual Property	Maintain number of R&D agreements and engagement with industry Maintain the number of university technologies and IP (including copyright) transferred to industry/spin-out companies and other organizations.	Number of R&D contracts and/or industry engagement Activities Number of executed agreements processed	Maintain or grow number of R&D contracts and/or industry engagement activities in 2022-23 compared to 2021-2022 Maintain number of License, Assignment & MT Agreements processed in 2022-23, as in 2021-22	