

Call for Nominations The Athenaeum and Acadia Alumni 2023 Student of the Year Award

The Athenaeum and Acadia Alumni Student of the Year Award is presented annually to a student who has excelled at Acadia. The award is presented to a nominee who has contributed to the Acadia and Wolfville communities and has worked to further the Acadia spirit through extracurricular and/or academic activities.

The Acadia Alumni Association derives strength from the diversity of our community. As a result, the Association is committed to creating a culture of inclusion and equity in the work they do and encourages nominations from all races, colours, religions, genders, gender identities or expressions, sexual orientations, national origins, abilities, or ages as candidates for award consideration.

Nominations must be submitted by March 31, 2023 for consideration for the 2023 award. The award will be presented to the recipient during Spring Convocation weekend in May.

Guidelines for Nominations

If you know a worthy candidate you would like to nominate for this award, please prepare a submission. To be considered complete, your nomination package must have the following components:

1. A completed copy of this nomination form.
2. Applications may include reference letters and other supporting materials such as a resume and an unofficial transcript.

Notes:

- 1) Nominees must be full-time students and preference will be given to students who will be graduating in May 2023.
- 2) Although academic achievement is not the sole determining factor, nominees should be in good academic standing.
- 3) To maintain the integrity of the awards program and to respect the privacy of those consulted, the selection committee keeps nominations confidential, and we ask that nominators do the same. Nominators and those providing letters of support are encouraged to share their submissions with the nominee if they wish to do so.
