

Joint Initiatives

The following represents a selection of activities undertaken or planned by the Maple League universities in 2016-17. Activities hosted at specific universities allow for participation from students, faculty and staff at Maple League member universities.

Academic

- Design and implementation of identical e-classrooms on each campus: use technology to support the intimate learning atmosphere of member universities.
- Greek language course offered at Mount Allison in the 2016-17 academic year, includes students from Bishop's
- Mi'kmaq language and culture course at StFX in winter term 2017
- Genocide and Justice history course at Acadia in winter term 2017
- Biology Field School (StFX/ and Acadia) – students will study the ecology, in alternate years, of the Fundy region and northeastern Nova Scotia

Academic (Extracurricular)

- Podcast series from Acadia– a campus radio-hosted vehicle for hosting opinions and discussions on salient topics across the Maple League
- Undergraduate journal of research, spearheaded by the StFX Faculty of Arts
- Expansion of Bishop's University Film Festival

Events

- Mount Allison hosted and live streamed presentation by Canadian author Joseph Boyden, part of MtA President's Speaker Series
- Lectures Art McDonald, Justice Murray Sinclair, Paul Martin, and Marie Henein lectures streamed to all other Maples league universities
- Up for Debate – hosted by Bishop's

Recruitment

- Joint events reaching out to prospective students
 - Toronto: Nov 15
 - Calgary: Nov 16
 - Vancouver: Nov 17