Books as Bridges - Persepolis Book Club

January 18, 2017 (6:00 pm - 5:00 pm)

Location: Quiet Reading Room, Vaughan Memorial Library

The Books as Bridges initiative encourages the Acadia community to share their love of books by reading the assigned novel or graphic novels and participating in programming surrounding the books.

Simply turn up to our book-clubs, author reading, or film screenings

Keep up with events or supplementary readings at our Books as Bridges Library Guide and the Books as Bridges Facebook Page

Our Persepolis 1 & 2 book club meets on Wednesday, January 18th & Wednesday, February 1st.

Our Monkey Beach book club meets on Wednesday, February 15th & Wednesday, March 1st.

All book-club meetings are from 6 – 7 pm in the Quiet Reading Room at the Vaughan Memorial Library.

Pleasure Your Shelf: How do I borrow these texts?

We have print copies of the graphic novel Persepolis & Persepolis 2, and Eden Robinson’s Monkey Beach on Reserve. We have an electronic copy of Eden Robinson’s Monkey Beach. There are additional copies of the titles in the general collection.

Pleasure Your Shelf: How do I purchase these texts?

The VML is collaborating with The Box of Delights Bookshop in Wolfville. If you mention “Books as Bridges” at the time of purchasing/ordering you receive a 15 percent discount.

Add this event to your calendar
Next Five Events

2019-07-01 Canada Day Holiday
2019-07-05 Summer Reunion
2019-07-06 Summer Reunion
2019-07-07 Summer Reunion
2019-07-09 Hot Summer Gathering in Hong Kong