

Business student's social enterprise, Save Me Save We, holds first Easter Feast

2019-04-23 14:41

Photo by Lily Nottage

Save Me Save We, founded by Acadia business student Junior Moaku, is a social enterprise that provides community support for mental health advocates by promoting mental health literacy.

This Easter, Save Me Save We held its first Easter feast at the Wolfville Farmers Market on April 20th. The dinner was organized by volunteers and community members. All donations were in support of the Open Arms mission.

Read the full article here.

Learn more about Save Me Save We here.

Recent Spotlights

Second-year student Chantal Peng discusses her Co-op experience and the benefits of a summer work-term

Alexis Mackey: Acadia Alumna talks about her new role as International Education Program Officer

Acadia's exchange program: Haley Geizer and Riley Scanlan discuss studying abroad in Norway

WISE Acadia camps aim to break stereotypes in campus-wide effort

Business in Japan: Experiencing business and culture first hand

Contact

Communications and Marketing
Alumni Hall
512 Main Street
Wolfville, Nova Scotia, B4P 2R6
newsroom@acadiu.ca
902-585-1362