About the Wong International Centre

Established in 1997, the Wong International Centre (WIC) offers international students a “home away from home.” With the generous support of Gene D. Wong ('60), Acadia's first graduate of Chinese descent, this Centre was created to provide support and information for Acadia's many international students.

The Wong International Centre is a place to go to have your questions answered. Whether you need advice on applying for your income taxes or just need some help adapting to a new country—our Student Advisor and other staff members are here to provide you with the support you may need.

The WIC is located at 27 Acadia Street and is open daily from 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. There are several internet drops throughout the house, as well as wireless internet access, a study room, and a kitchen where students can cook their favourite foods from home.

Mail Service at the University

Mail or courier packages are delivered to mailboxes at the Acadia Student Union (ASU) building. There are no deliveries to residence. To get an ASU mailbox, you need to rent one through the ASU.

Mail and documents regarding study permits, immigration (anything from Citizenship and Immigration Canada) can be received here at the Wong International Centre using the mailing address above. Our house manager will notify you of any mail for you and when you are able to pick it up.

If you receive an email from our house manager indicating you have mail, you can drop into the Wong Centre during these mail pick up times:

- Monday/Friday - 12:00pm to 1:00pm
- Tuesday/Thursday - 12:30pm to 1:30pm
- Wednesday - 2:00pm to 3:00pm

If one of these times does not work for you please contact house.manager@acadiau.ca to arrange an appointment.
